While we are dry, very dry, at Keytesville, over at Springfield where there is a camp of the state militia, they are inconvenienced by a heavy precipitation. Rains have been unusually partial this year, more so, we think, than we ever saw them in Missouri.

Kubo has the exclusive agency for Weir's patent self-sealing stone fruit jars.

Weir's patent self-sealing stone fruit jars, the best fruit jars made, at Kubo's.

Misses Emma and Carrie Kuhler are visiting in the country while their brother, Ed. is in St. Louis with a stock shipment.

M. K. Courtney and Ed. Kuhler each shipped a car load of cattle to St. Louis Monday. Millard returned home Wednesday, and Ed. stopped at Warrenton to visit his parents.

There was a game of base-ball played on the Keytesville grounds Wednesday between the Salisbury and Keytesville teams, which resulted in a score of 29 to 4 in favor of Keytesville.

"Uncle" Ed. Coleman's many friends will be glad to hear that he has sufficiently recovered from his long spell of sickness to be able to ride around and see some of his friends.

Butler county, Mo. is said to have 15 inches of rainfall that she would like to dispose of to some drought-stricken district of Kansas. We would like to have half of it in Chariton county and could use it all to advantage.

A large and attentive congregation greeted Rev. John Holland at the Methodist church in Keytesville last Sunday forenoon, and listened to an excellent discourse from the text: "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve, as for me and my house we will serve the Lord."

The Kansas City council is preparing to do away with the crossing of all railroads that enter the city. The railroads will be required to raise or lower their tracks as the ground may require. The reason for this move on the part of the council is that so many people are being killed at the crossings.

Fresh supply of candies, just received, at Kubo's.

The Kansas harvest hands are now contemplating a trip to the Paris exposition.

H. B. Richardson went to Fayette last Friday to visit his family, and returned Monday evening.

Mrs. L. D. Applegate and son, Ben, went up to Kansas City last Saturday afternoon to visit the head of the Applegate family, who is in the internal revenue service at Kansas City.

The people of Caldwell county are in favor of higher education, as is shown by the fact that nearly 200 of her young people were students the past year in the colleges and universities of Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. James Halley of Keytesville are the possessors of a fine boy baby that came to their house last Friday night. Mother and babe are doing well, while Jim is doing as well as could be expected of a papa with his first "little responsibility."

A colored man in Osage county, Mo., claims to be 104 years old, and says he saddled the horse for his master to ride to the war of 1812. He is well preserved and as an evidence of the fact he harvested seven acres of wheat this year without assistance.

On the night of July 17 Charles Kelly of St. Louis jumped from the fourth story window of the Hotel Barnum. Fortunately two electric wires broke the force of his fall, and the only damage done was the breaking of a heavy sky light on which he alighted with both feet. When he made the leap he was dreaming the hotel was on fire.

C. B. Crawley returned from circuit court at Fayette Wednesday morning.

Frank Ward and wife of Deming, New Mexico, are on a visit to relatives in Keytesville. Frank was raised in Keytesville and has a good position as telegraph operator on the Southern Pacific railroad at Deming. The consensus of opinion in Keytesville is that Frank has drawn a lucky card in the selection of a life partner. She was raised in New Mexico, but received an education at Lexington, Mo., that renders her an accomplished lady. This is her first visit to Frank's relatives in Missouri.

The aggregate value of surplus shipments of Missouri products for the past year, as shown by the report of T. P. Rixey, state labor commissioner, is $135,070,289.01. The surplus of Chariton county is $1,557,960.32. There are 25 counties that report a larger shipment than Chariton. Jasper county leads with a surplus, chiefly in minerals, aggregating $5,626,411.54. Greene county is next best with a surplus of $3,314,914.25. As an agricultural and stock-raising county Nodaway takes the ribbon, reporting a surplus of $4,476,858.24.
